

Student Example

Ms. Jenn

Let's Write Sentences

Date

1C: Write your own sentence!

1. The dog ran out of the fence, and he was happy!

My subject is the dog.

My verb is ran.

The is my first word, and it is capilalized. [capitalized]

My sentence stopper is an exclamation point.

2. The cardinal loves to eat seeds so much!

My subject is the cardinal.

My verb is eat. [Although the word "eat" can be a verb, in this sentence it is not the verb.

What about the cardinal? What does he think about eating seeds?]

The is my first word, and it is capilalized. [capitalized]

My sentence stopper is an exclamation point.

3. I love liziards [← Check your spelling] so much.

My subject is the liziard. [← Oops, this is not the main subject of the sentence. The subject will be who or what is doing the verb. Who loves the lizard so much?]

My verb is love.

I is my first word, and it is capilalized. [capitalized]

My sentence stopper is a period.